The West Australian

As Government set to reveal biggest deficit since WWII — they will also say Australia faring better than every other country thanks
to the shining light of our mining sector

THANK GOD
FOR WA

Today's "mini-Budget" will reveal a deficit of up to $200 billion — the worst since WWII. But the Treasurer will also say it could have been uglier if not for WA's mining sector, where investment actually grew.
